

Removing an Associate Member

An Associate Member can make reservations and bank or borrow Resort Points. However, an Associate Member has no voting privileges and is not entitled to any financial information regarding the Club or the Membership. The Member is financially responsible for all charges or damages incurred by the Associate Member and may cancel an Associate Membership without notice to the Associate. There is no fee to remove an Associate Member.

I _____ (name), Member _____ (Member number) am hereby removing _____ (name) as an Associate Member on my Club Intrawest Membership. This person will no longer have access to any aspect of my Club Intrawest Membership unless further written and signed consent is given.
